

Korea team on the way to a 50-24 victory over Hong Kong team on 24 May 2008 Saturday at King's Park Hong Kong which ensured they finished as runners-up in the inaugural HSBC Asian Five Nations to runaway winners Japan.

Korea had stretched their advantage to 35-7 by half time and although Hong Kong scored three tries in the last quarter through Kenzo Pannell, Simon Leung and Jon Abel, the damage had been done in the first half.
